

Leading When You're Not THE Leader

T _____

1. When there is tension in ministry, it's usually because you are experiencing;
 - A strong sense of _____ (you _____ where it's going)
 - A strong sense of _____ (you _____ where it's going)
2. Some tensions that are specific to the "Second Chair" leader:
 - _____ vs. _____
 - _____ vs. _____
 - _____ vs. _____
3. For all leaders in all chairs, some issues are not "_____ to _____." Rather, these ongoing issues are "_____ to _____."
4. How do you know which kind of issue you are facing?
 - Does the same issue keep _____ over and over again?
 - Are there _____, _____ people on both sides?
 - Would it _____ the team or church if one side "_____ "?
5. Before taking action, be sure to understand the _____ of the opposite perspective, and be sure to understand the _____ of your perspective.
6. In ministry, it's never about a perfect _____. Rather, it's about an ongoing "_____." Tensions will always "_____ " back and forth.
7. The best solution for tension is _____.

H _____

1. A "Second Chair" leader is someone whose _____ is subordinate to the "First Chair" leader, but whose _____ is the same. They both lead for the good of the _____. That's why your _____ must be kept healthy.

2. The "Second Chair" challenges your _____ like no other position, because you often feel _____. And that runs contrary to everything that our _____ teaches, and everything that our _____ wants.
3. "It's not the worth of the _____, it's the worth of the _____."
4. Many "Second Chair" leaders end up with distorted _____ and misaligned _____ because of "_____."
5. If you want to serve your leader well:
 - _____ his motives are pure; _____ your motives are pure.
 - Address _____ in the church; affirm _____ in the church.
 - _____ your leader publicly; _____ your leader privately.
 - _____ him with problems; _____ him with solutions.
 - _____ his priorities; _____ his schedule.
 - _____ to his strengths; _____ to his weaknesses.
 - Stand _____, stand _____, stand _____, and stand _____ for your leader.
 - All authority is _____ of God; all things _____ for good.
6. The best solution for heart is _____.

E _____

1. Probably the best biblical example of a "Second Chair" leader is _____.
2. If you are a "Second Chair" leader, these are your responsibilities:
 - Be a pulse _____.
 - Be a vision _____.
 - Be a leadership _____.
 - Be a gap _____.
3. If you ever do leave the "Second Chair," remember the following:
 - Do leave _____. Don't leave _____.
 - Do build up your _____. Don't burn down your _____.
 - Do leave tangible _____. Don't leave unfinished _____.
4. The best solution for expectation is _____.